Part 1 - Scheduling activities

1. You must submit a completed application to us prior to the activity. You can obtain an application from the GA Building Information Center or from our website.
2. When we receive a completed application from you, the GA Building Information Center will:
 - a. Review the application for completeness and reasonable time, place and manner limits.
 - b. Get additional information as needed to determine reasonable time, place and manner limits.
3. Within 2 working days of us receiving the completed application, the GA Building Information Center will approve or deny the application and notify you.
4. If an activity is approved, the GA Building Information Center will:
 - a. Notify you in writing that your activity has been approved.
 - b. Notify you of any required fees for GA services and make payment arrangements.
 - c. Reserve the date and time on the activity schedule.
 - d. Send an informational e-mail listing the activity name, date, time, location and expected number of attendees to:
 - i. The GA Building asset manager.
 - ii. The GA Building facility manager.

5. If an activity is denied the GA Building Information Center will notify you in writing and:
 - a. State the reason for denial.
 - b. Provide the appeal process.
